

EUDR self-check for wood and furniture manufacturers in Vietnam

Nine yes-or-no questions in two minutes: can you answer the EUDR data request from your EU customer today?

By Quoc Thanh Lam Published: 30 October 2026 Fact-checked: 30 October 2026 2 min read

From 30 December 2026, EU companies that buy wood and furniture from Vietnam need data from their suppliers for every order. Answer nine questions to see whether you can deliver it today.

WHAT YOUR EU CUSTOMER WILL ASK FOR

- ☐ Where the wood was grown
- ☐ That it was harvested legally
- ☐ No deforestation, and no forest degradation, after 31 December 2020
- ☐ How the wood got into the product

NINE QUESTIONS

1. Do you know the CN/HS code of every product you ship to the EU?

Yes

No

2. Do you know which EU customer submits the due diligence statement, and from which date?

Yes

No

3. Do you have the location of every plot your wood comes from (a point, or a polygon for plots over 4 hectares)?

Yes

No

4. Do you have land-use, harvest and transport documents for every source?

Yes

No

5. Do you know the scientific name (genus and species) of every wood you use?

Yes

No

6. Do you know the country where every wood was grown, including imported timber?

Yes

No

7. Can you show which wood deliveries went into which shipment?

Yes

No

8. Do your suppliers know they will be asked for this data, and have they agreed to provide it?

Yes

No

9. Is one person in your company responsible for EUDR requests from customers?

Yes

No

YOUR RESULT

All yes: You can answer your customer. Keep the data up to date for every new order.

1–2 no: Close these gaps before the next customer request arrives.

3 or more no: Your customer will find gaps. A one-week Readiness Check shows what is missing and who has to deliver it.

TALK TO US

Book a 30-minute call, or write on WhatsApp or by email.

WhatsApp +84 36 571 9231 · thanh@lamnovaconsulting.com · lamnovaconsulting.com

This self-check is an orientation, not a compliance assessment or legal advice.

This article explains the rules as we read them on the date of the last fact check. It is not legal advice. Check the current text of the regulation and, for decisions with legal consequences, ask a lawyer.